

Marc Daigneault Head of Research Funding, MDC

Paths to collaboration

- Collaborative grant applications
- Subcontractor arrangements (either collaborative or commercial)
- Sub-letting lab space
- Embedded staff
- Knowledge exchange activities
- Business support
- Long-term strategic applications (Horizon Europe, Resilient Infrastructure)

University of Exeter and Medicines Discovery Catapult combine to industrialise academic medicines research Today, the University of Exeter and Medicines Discovery Catapacit (MCC) announce their strategic partnership to accounce their strategic partnership to Development (RAD); creating value for the extern and encored transitional skills. MDC is the national centre for technology encounter and adoption for medicines RAD and, in collaboration with the University of Extert and its ground-braiking researchers. L1

UK SPINE: Healthy ageing programme sets sights on improving quality of life in National UK SPINE initiative created to help us stap healthy in later years innovative research aims to target the processes behind ageing rather than treating individual diseases. Plagship projects include new pipelne to transform and accelerable development of ageing thespectics Narroer of people over 75 in the UK will be one in seven by 2040, [...]

later years

in COVID-19

Oncimmune and Medicines

Discovery Catapult awarded

UK Government funding for development of an Infectious Disease research tool for use

Validated research tool to be used to predict disease seventy and individual therapeutic response to COVID-19 in aid of rapid vaccine and drug development Oncimmune Holdings trimunodagnositics group, today announces the award of funding from the UK Research and innovation ("UKRI") Ideas to Address

COVID-19 programme, to support a [.].

BIC (AML ONC L), the leading global intellegens

Innovate UK Funded Project Produces Next-Generation Al Drug Discovery Platform

Optimum, Intellegens and Medicines Discovery Cataget combine their expertise in drug discovery and Ai research. The consortaum behind the DeepAdMeET project ask up to advisione artificial intelligence (AI) technologies for drug discovery, today announced the successful occusion of their project which was funded by Innovate UK, the UKs Innovation agency. Cotibinum – a dientoper of [_]

UK Innovators Target Nanoparticles at Inoperable Cancers

Active Needle Technology, Xerion Healthcare and Medicines Discovery Catapolt win funding to begin ground breaking project Ada point of critical clinical need for improved treatments for pancreatic and head and neek cancers, a partnership of healthcare innovators set out to revolutionise tablotherapy for inoperable, and the most difficult to treat sumours. With the am off...1 Medicines Discovery Catapult awarded funding to establish Cheshire & Warrington as an international powerhouse for the creation of new medicines

Strength in Places Fund

Today (11th August 2020), Mediones Dalobely Cabauth (MCC) announce that it handlesen availated government seedootm funding provided through OK Research and imenasion it Tagoth (220th Improved partner Destrone K, Wannofon Local Entreprise Partnership (LEP), The hundring will be used to create a regional consortium and develop the funding []

